THE PANTHER

A dark, textured illustration of two figures, possibly a man and a woman, standing side-by-side. The man on the right is wearing a hat and a long coat, and the woman on the left is wearing a long dress. The background is filled with intricate, swirling patterns that create a sense of depth and texture.

Foreword

We, the Seniors of 1956, have tried to capture a picture of life as it exists at Shady Grove School. When many years have passed you may then look back upon today, which will then be yesterday, and recall the hours of work and pleasure spent within these halls. If this record serves to recall and keep alive for you those dear Shady Grove memories, then our purpose in publishing this, the seventh volume of THE PANTHER, will have been accomplished.

Last Will And Testament

We, the graduating class of 1956, realizing that the close of our school days is near at hand, think it wise to leave something to those who in the future will undertake to fill our places.

In the course of our high school days, naturally, we have accumulated various and valuable possessions; our years have been fruitful. We have acquired a vast store of knowledge along with other things that will help us through our lives. Since we are burdened with some superfluous possessions, we think it wise to dispose of them; too, we realize that the school and the underclassmen, especially the Juniors, would have a great loss without us or our valuable possessions.

To the school we bequeath our best wishes for the future years.

To the Junior Class we leave our chapel seats, homeroom, and our ability to get along with Mrs. Parker.

To the Sophomores we leave the ability to get out of mischievous escapades with as much ease as we get out of ours.

To the Freshmen we bequeath our class motto, "Build for Character, Not for Fame," with hopes that you, too, will some day be Seniors.

To our faithful and long suffering principal, Mr. Parker, we leave our heart felt gratitude for his guidance and tolerance during the past eleven years.

To Mrs. Parker we leave a Senior Class that will take better care of the typewriters.

To Miss Bishop we leave a more congenial annual staff.

To Mr. Thornton we leave our wishes that he may have a class just as he wants it to be.

To Mr. Partin we leave a year's subscription to the "Progressive Farmer."

To Mr. Hardin we leave a golden cup from which to pour water on the heads of his students who go to sleep in class.

James Foster wills that streamlined luxury liner, Bus No. 28, to Nancy Allen because with a little more practice and determination she could become a "pretty fair country bus driver."

Nancy Hartman wills her ability to become engaged to Allen Blakley, and hopes he doesn't break as many hearts as she did.

To Tama Sue Markland, Wilma Lou Riley leaves her ability to have a different date every night.

Emily Mock would like to bestow her freckles and basketball uniform upon Gray Potts.

Nancy Vogler wills to Gilbert Potts her beat-up "Big Ben" and the tin pan it sits in. May he from this day forward get to school on time.

Ann Hendrix gladly leaves her ability to gain weight to Glenda Bailey.

To Lester Myers, D.C. Blakley leaves his ability to "light up" in ALL situations.

Wayne Williams entrusts to Thurman O'Mara his height and ability to make 30 points in one basketball game.

Brack Bailey wills to Sue Browder the Bailey part of his name.

To Jerry Hege, John Foster leaves his appetite and mischievous ways.

Jeanette Orrell wishes to bestow upon G.V. Hendrix her ability to talk.

Shirley Potts bequeaths her cute personality to James Myers.

Nancy Richie and Shirley Myers leave their job on the annual staff to Linda Hartman. They also want to wish her luck.

Shirley Burton wishes to entrust her monogram club membership to Alvin Myers with the hopes he will take good care of it.

Cleo Carter wills to Jean Cornatzer her ability to get a way to and from Senior Play Practice every night.

Jimmy Jones leaves his ability to talk to the girls to Leonard Jones.

To Kenneth Howard, Dorothy Bailey bestowes her ability to type 60 words a minute.

Martha Kate Husser entrusts her position as school pianist to Gordon Cornatzer.

Odell Thomasson wills his blond curly hair to Dema Bowles.

To Bill Livengood, Frances Seaford leaves a certain little brown headed girl as his substitute bus driver.

Craig Howard just leaves!

In witness thereof, I, Dorothy Bailey, have been authorized, directed and delegated by the Senior Class to bring together its last will and testament and with its help do hereto set my hand and affix my seal on this, the eighteenth of May in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-six.

Signed: Dorothy Bailey

Class Prophecy

One bright moonlit night, as I was sitting in the yard staring up at the bright silvery moon and sparkling stars, my thoughts were of the Senior Class of 1956. I began to feel drowsy. As I drifted to sleep something seemed to disturb my dreams. I heard music coming from a building that I was approaching. I found myself in front of Carnegie Hall and decided to enter. On stage I saw Martha Kate Husser. It made me feel at home as I sat and listened awhile.

As I left the building I bumped into someone. Turning to apologize I saw Odell Thomasson in a Marine Captain's uniform. I said, "Hello," and continued on my way down the street.

"What's all that noise?" I asked. It was a parade led by Miss America of 1960 in a new convertible. I knew that I had seen that girl somewhere before! IT WAS DOROTHY BYERLY!

Two blonde headed girls who were taking pictures kept getting in my way so that I couldn't see. All of a sudden it dawned on me that they were none other than Cleo Carter and Shirley Potts! They told me they were photographers for Life Magazine. Both girls had on diamond rings and said they planned to give up the photography business and try housekeeping.

Going down the street a little later a billboard on the front of a building caught my eye. The picture looked familiar but I didn't believe it, so I went inside to be sure. There she was, NANCY RICHIE-LADY WRESTLER and WOMAN CHAMPION OF THE WORLD!

By this time my hunger prompted me to visit a restaurant. As I was eating, a television set over in the corner caught my eye. A program was just beginning, "America's Greatest Young Comedian," and D.C. Blakley walked into the spotlight!

After I had finished my meal, I noticed it was time to start back to North Carolina, so I proceeded to La Guardia Air Port. An attractive blonde stewardess was helping people to mount the plane. It was Shirley Burton! I found an empty seat and sat down. I recognized Wilma Lou Riley in a flight nurse's uniform. She was on her way to Texas. She had been to see Frances Seaford who was recording for Decca. It seemed Frances just recorded a hit tune called "Dance With Me Henry."

About this time the pilot entered the plane. When I saw that it was Jimmy Jones I didn't know whether to stay on or get off, but Shirley assured me that Jimmy was one of the best so we kept our seats.

Arriving in Winston-Salem a couple of hours later, I was met at the airport by Wayne Williams, who was going to take me out to Advance. He said that he was driving stock cars now. On our arrival in Advance fifteen minutes later, I was convinced that Wayne was one of the fastest in the business. He said James Foster owned a used car lot in Cornatzer and he was James' number-one customer.

We went out to the school and found Mr. Parker, trying to settle a dispute between Brack Bailey and Emily Mock. Both were coaching basketball and they couldn't decide who was going to have to practice after school.

Ann Hendrix walked in with a handful of bills and I soon found out she was Mr. Parker's new secretary.

Right behind her came Shirley Myers with an English book-- "New English Teacher." I commented on the number of teachers that were one time students of Shady Grove High School. Mr. Parker said he had hoped to get Jeanette Orrell to teach also, but it seemed that after being over at Wake Forest for ten years she was still working on her B. A. Degree.

John Foster, in a patrolman's uniform, walked in about this time. He said he was taking Badgett's place in Mocksville.

Craig Howard came in to see about a ball game. I concluded that he had organized a baseball club called the "Cornatzer Blue Devils" and owned a ball park up that way.

The minute John and Craig left Nancy Vogler came in. She was trying to sell Mr. Parker some groceries for the lunchroom. She owned the Advance Super Market and business wasn't so good. I asked her to go with me to visit Dorothy Bailey. She said Dorothy was married and lived in Advance but owned her own beauty shop in Winston-Salem.

We decided to visit Nancy Hartman. We drove up to one of the largest homes I had ever seen. The butler opened the door and let us in. He said Nancy was giving the maids some instructions on a dinner party that she was giving that night and that she would be through in a few minutes. I sat down in a comfortable chair.

Something happened. The next thing I knew I opened my eyes. I must have been asleep for quite awhile. The moon was sinking low in the sky and the stars were fading away. As I sat up I thought, "What a Wonderful Dream I have had about the Graduating Class of 1956."

Class History

In the fall of 1952, a group of twenty-three prospective students entered the doors of Shady Grove High School. We all felt a bit of excitement for the four year journey ahead. Leading the group was Mr. Frank D. Hardin with Nancy Vogler, Brack Bailey, and Emily Mock acting as class officers. We soon became adjusted to changing classes and being called "Freshmen." One of the biggest events of the year was electing our Halloween candidates. Frances Seaford was queen, Jimmy Jones, king, and Nancy Vogler, attendant. We were very proud when Martha Kate Husser, Wayne Williams, and Brack Bailey made the varsity basketball team. We had several real nice parties. With a mixture of good times and hard work the year was a successful one.

When we organized in the fall of 1953, we found that Vance Hendrix, Margie Foster and Rudell Foster were missing. Miss Marjorie Bishop was our new leader. Helping her was Nancy Grey Hartman, Nancy Vogler, and Cleo Carter. D.C. Blakley soon came to join our group. Our Halloween candidates were Sylvia Livengood, queen, Brack Bailey, king, and Nancy Grey Hartman, attendant. We worked hard to win but others were more determined. Nancy Vogler and Frances Seaford went out for cheerleading and were elected. Nancy Grey Hartman, Emily Mock, Annie Ruth Hendrix, and Jeanette Orrell became part of the basketball team. We were very proud when eleven of our twenty-three classmates were invited to join the Beta Club. By the end of the year we felt we were really a part of the High School.

The first thing we noticed when next we met, in the fall of 1954, was that Sylvia Livengood was not among the group. We found we had gained Shirley Potts, James Foster, and John Standifur. John moved away before the year ended. Mr. Frank D. Hardin, Brack Bailey, Cleo Carter, Nancy Vogler, and Martha Kate Husser were class leaders. Our Halloween candidates were Martha Kate Husser, queen, Wayne Williams, king, and Emily Mock, attendant. Shirley Burton made the basketball team. Dorothy Byerly and Shirley Potts were elected cheerleaders. The most important event of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. We sold chances on a radio and served a dinner to the Civic Club to raise money. We decided to have it at the Woman's Club in Thomasville and to use "Hitch Your Wagon To A Star" as our theme. Everyone seemed to enjoy the gala occasion so we felt that it was a success. Jeanette Orrell, Martha Kate Husser, Jimmy Jones, and Brack Bailey served as Junior Marshalls. The year ended with much excitement and thoughts of the coming Senior year.

Fall, 1955, found us once more in school. Mrs. J.D. Parker, Jr. with Brack Bailey, Martha Kate Husser, Nancy Grey Hartman, and Cleo Carter were class leaders. Our first great event of the year was the Halloween Court. We elected Shirley Potts, queen, John Foster, king, and Dorothy Byerly, attendant. We worked very determinedly and for the first time in our four years of high school our queen and king were crowned. We have found putting out the school paper and publishing the annual hard work. Wilma Lou Riley made the basketball team. At this point we are looking forward to our Senior play and Senior trip. We never knew we could work so hard and have so much fun in the process. As our school days draw near to an end we stop to think, and remember with a touch of sorrow how wonderful they have been. Then we turn with hopeful hearts toward the future.

ADVERTISEMENTS

BRACK BAILEY - Business Manager
MR. CHARLIE CORNATZER - Local Merchant
NANCY VOGLER - Assistant Business Manager

Dear Friends,

Without the help and generous assistance of our local and nearby advertisers, we would not have been able to publish this the seventh volume of the Panther. We would like to take this opportunity to express our sincerest thanks and appreciation for their generous aid.

We hope the citizens of this community will take advantage of every opportunity to patronize these merchants.

Sincerely,

The Panther Staff
